There are 2500 sacks sugar included in the cargo brought by the Inter-Island steamer Iwawiki that arrived from Kaula this morning. According to a report, seven hundred sacks of sugar have been left at Kaula. The trip was characterized by a succession of northeast gales with rain. The showers are said to have delayed the loading of cargo to considerable extent.

Great Britain has two hundred and sixty experimental plots, devoted to the growing of the sugar beet.

RECREATIONS

BIJOU

Tonight will be one of the biggest nights at the Bijou for with a big audience the sensational European dance given by the famous Hidalgo will be the most important feature of the program. These clever young Spanish artists are exponents of grace, and their dance is an interpretation of a musical topic. In the "Merry Widow Dance" their art is brought to its highest state of perfection. Their costumes are beautiful, of Spanish cut, that of "Merry Widow" being of the Spanish bull-fighter's design. The senorita is a beautiful costume, with lace and fringe and blending colors predominating. The soul-kiss as these young people interpret it, is a feature which brings down the house. Jones and O'Brien, the colored buck and wing dancers, are making good and better at each performance. They are prime favorites.

EMPIRE

Over at the Empire the greatest matinee attraction is in the diminutive person of Princess Susana, the midget, who is but two feet eight inches tall. She is an expert tight-wire performer, and is dainty in her entertainment. She is a wonderful little woman, and although but thirty-two inches tall, she is twenty-seven years of age. Whittier and Crosson, the singers, have struck a winning stride and have been wise in their selection of songs. The moving pictures this week are unusually good, particularly the one of comedy and another of a historical topic.

SAVOY

The Savoy has one of its best programs for tonight, for besides the funny juggling stunts of Hessie, whose comical mawkish and juggling, are laugh-provoking, Jourdain and Gervaise are singing operatic selections. "Carmen" is one of the best selections attempted by Madame Gervaise and in this her voice loses nothing in comparison with that of Calve who was recently heard at the Opera House.

SMART SET DOINGS

McGraw-Fletcher Wedding. A pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. McCarthy, when Miss Catherine Fletcher and Mr. John McGraw, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The marriage service was performed by the Reverend Ebersole. This ceremony was performed on the large lanai, amidst a bower of jasmine flowers, potted palms and maiden hair ferns. The bride who is a petite blonde, looked extremely pretty in her wedding robe of French organdy and white satin, real orange blossoms were worn and added to the effectiveness of the toilette. The charming bride arrived on the last Sierra and has been the guest of Col. and Mrs. McCarthy. The groom is associated in business with Brown and Lyons of this city. After the ceremony a dinner was served at the Hotel Donna, the decorations for this enjoyable affair consisted of a Bohemian glass basket, filled with pink Duchess roses, this handsome centerpiece adorned the center of the table. Individual baskets with miniature silver candle sticks with pink shades were the favors. Dainty bon bon boxes, fashioned to represent roses were found at each place.

Dinner on Thesis. *

Monday evening a jolly dinner was given by Lieutenant and Mrs. Pope in honor of Lieutenant and Mrs. Lauren Sidney Willis and Mrs. Pratt of Los Angeles. Tiny electric light bulbs in different colors formed a novel and unique decoration. This electrical display was partially concealed by lace ferns and large double scarlet carnations. The place cards were of a nautical nature, representing miniature boats. Among those invited to meet the guests of honor were Lieutenant and Mrs. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer, Dr. Gillespie, Lieutenant Scammiel and Lieutenant and Mrs. Wilcox. *

There will be an important meeting of the Humane Society, in the lounge room of the Alexander Young Hotel, Monday morning, at nine-thirty o'clock. A full attendance is desired as important matters are to be brought up for discussion. *

Mr. J. Lyall gave an enjoyable luncheon at the Alexander Young Hotel, Sunday, complimentary to Mrs. William Hiseaman, who left Friday of this week for her home in Hilo. The appointments for this delightful affair were very elaborate, the color scheme was yellow. *

PERSONALITIES

DR. F. L. ATKINSON and wife of Sacramento are spending a vacation in Hawaii and are staying at the Young.

MR. NAKAMURA, who will become one of the secretaries of the local Japanese Consulate-General, will arrive from Japan in the Nippon Maru, due here April 9.

GEORGE C. BECKLEY is confined to his room at the Young Hotel with a broken ankle. It happened while he was out hunting yesterday and was caused by stepping into a grass-covered hole between the rocks. H. M. KANIHO, the "Cannon Ball" of Kohala, Hawaii, is in town, having arrived this morning in the Mauna Kea. He was present in the Legislative Hall this forenoon, witnessing the work of the members of the House. He will probably spend a few weeks in Honolulu before returning to Kohala.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT Y. M. C. A.

The Men's League Bible class of Central Union church takes up a most interesting and vital phase of the social teachings of Jesus at its session tomorrow morning, viz., "His Teachings on Wealth."

So radical and sweeping are some of His sayings in denunciation of riches and the possessors of riches that He has by some been classed as "the first Socialist."

It will be the purpose of the class to face fairly and frankly all of Jesus' teachings on this subject, and interpret them in the light of present-day social needs. Men of varying creeds, attend this class. All who are in earnest to get at the truth are welcome.

The class meets at 10 o'clock in the church parlor, and is led by Mr. Ebersole, the assistant minister of Central Union.

Y. M. C. A. 2 p. m.—Concert, Frank Anderson's orchestra. 4 p. m.—Song services, led by Frank Lee, Violin and vocal solos. Address by Rev. D. C. Peters. 5 p. m.—"Get-acquainted" supper. Y. M. C. A., Hotel and Alakea streets. All young men, especially strangers, invited.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

The Y. M. C. A. has planned a series of Sunday afternoon meetings beginning tomorrow and closing Easter afternoon. It will be a strong series. Tomorrow the speaker will be Rev. D. C. Peters, new pastor of the Christian church, and a speaker who never fails to make good. The religious meeting is not the whole of the program. Beginning at 3 o'clock, Frank Anderson's orchestra will play in the lobby. Mr. Anderson is well known as a musician, and his five-piece orchestra is a first-class organization. The meeting lasts from 4 till 5, and includes a musical program as well as the address. After the address, supper will be served in the boys' room at a reasonable price, giving the young men who are strangers in the city a chance to meet the local men and begin to feel at home. These "fellowship" suppers are quite a feature of the afternoon meetings of the larger Y. M. C. As in the States, and become quite a social attraction.
